Re Dallas teletype to Bureau dated 1/26/64, heading re article in Sega Magazine by WILLIAM W. TURNER.

On 1/31/64, Mr. STAN WOLD, Supervisor of Reservations, American Airlines, Dallas, Texas, telephone TA 1-3221, telephonically advised SA ALBERT SAYERS that he had made inquiry at the Home Office of American Airlines in New York City, New York, and had received information that one W. TURNER had been a passenger on American Airlines flight number 128, leaving San Francisco, California, at 8:05 AM, 11/25/63, and arriving in Dallas, Texas, at 12:56 PM, 11/25/63. The reservation for this flight was made at about 10:00 PM on 11/24/63. No address was shown in San Francisco for W.
TURNER, however, home telephone AT 2-8374 and business phone UN 3-4760 were furnished by TURNER as verification for the reservation. A ticket was issued for a one-way trip from San Francisco to Dallas with open return.

Mr. WOLD advised that this was the only TURNER the company records reflected as having made a flight from San Francisco to Dallas during the period 11/22-25/63, inclusive.

No further inquiry is being made in this matter UACB.
